*YOUNG PEOPLES GROUP WILL TAKE CARE OF LECTOR OFFICIATING SUNDAY 5PM MASS ON THE 3RD SUNDAY OF EACH CALENDAR MONTH.

* IMPORTANT NOTES TO ALL LECTORS*

- PLEASE SIGN IN BEFORE MASS please sign in near the entrance, (the sign in book can be found in the vesting area where the altar servers and priest prepare before the procession).
- Please verify the correct readings are set in the lectionary (book for readings on the ambo/lectern). The choir/cantor may sometimes ask the lector to help recite the responsorial psalm in which case the cantor would advise the lector before mass starts.
- The lector joins the entrance procession, following the altar servers. Please walk at a modest pace as the lector walks ahead of the pastor.
- When you reach the front, wait for the pastor, and all in the procession (altar servers, lector and pastor) bow at the same time. The lector then goes to their seat by the ambo/lectern and waits to say the first reading while the pastor opens the mass.

- Once the lector has finished their readings they close the lectionary and place it gently on the front of the ambo/lectern and go to their bench. The lector does not need to bow to the altar unless they cross at the center of the Church, in which case they bow to the tabernacle.
- For the general intercessions, the lectors go to the ambo during the recitation of the Creed so that they can begin reading the intercessions as soon as the recitation of the Creed has ended. The priest will introduce the intercessions. The printed intercessions are found on the ambo (lectern). Before beginning to read the lector may state "The response is Lord Hear our Prayer..."  this is helpful to visitors or newcomers who wish to follow the order of the mass.

*Please remember to speak clearly, and more slowly than in regular conversation so that all can hear.

*Also, please adjust the microphone before starting to read.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO KEEP YOUR SCHEDULED DATE, PLEASE FIND A REPLACEMENT.

Christmas and Easter Holy Week lector call outs will be done separately and scheduled closer to their dates

God Bless, and thank you again on behalf of St. Peter's for taking the time to volunteer for this ministry!
